

Präsidenschaftskanzlei

CV Mag.^a Doris Schmidauer

Born on 21. September 1963 in Grieskirchen.
Married to Dr. Alexander Van der Bellen.

© Wolfgang Zajc

Professional Background

- from 2/2018 Self-employed as Management Consultant including business organization
- 10/1999–1/2018 Managing Director (Management of Parliamentary Group and Human Resources) in the Green's Parliamentary Group
- 12/1989–10/1999 Expert in Parliamentary Committee of Enquiry into the Noricum affair; Greens' Parliamentary Group Senior Adviser on Human Resources, Economic and Social Affairs
- 7/1989–12/1989 Practical training at the Documentation Centre of Austrian Resistance (DÖW); participation in the book project "Oral History – Accounts of Resistance Fighters and Victims of Persecution, Volume 2: Catholics, Conservatives, Legitimists" (in German)
- 1/1989–6/1989 Freelance work for the Austria Press Agency (APA) on European integration

Education

- 1982–1988 Political Science major in combination with interdisciplinary studies in Sociology, History, Women's Studies and Development Policy at the University of Vienna; graduated with Mag. phil. in 1988
- 1974–1982 Secondary school in Wels, Austria; graduated in June 1982
- 1970–1974 Primary school in Peuerbach, Austria

Additional Training

- 2010/2011 Curriculum on Systemic Corporate Development by The Neuwaldegg Consulting Group, Vienna
- 2001/2002 Programme on "The Art of Policy-Making" in cooperation with the University of Klagenfurt Institute for Philosophy and Group Dynamics
- 2000/2001 Programme on Human Resource Management at the Austrian Federal Academy of Public Administration